

Malt Masters Whisky Tour of Scotland

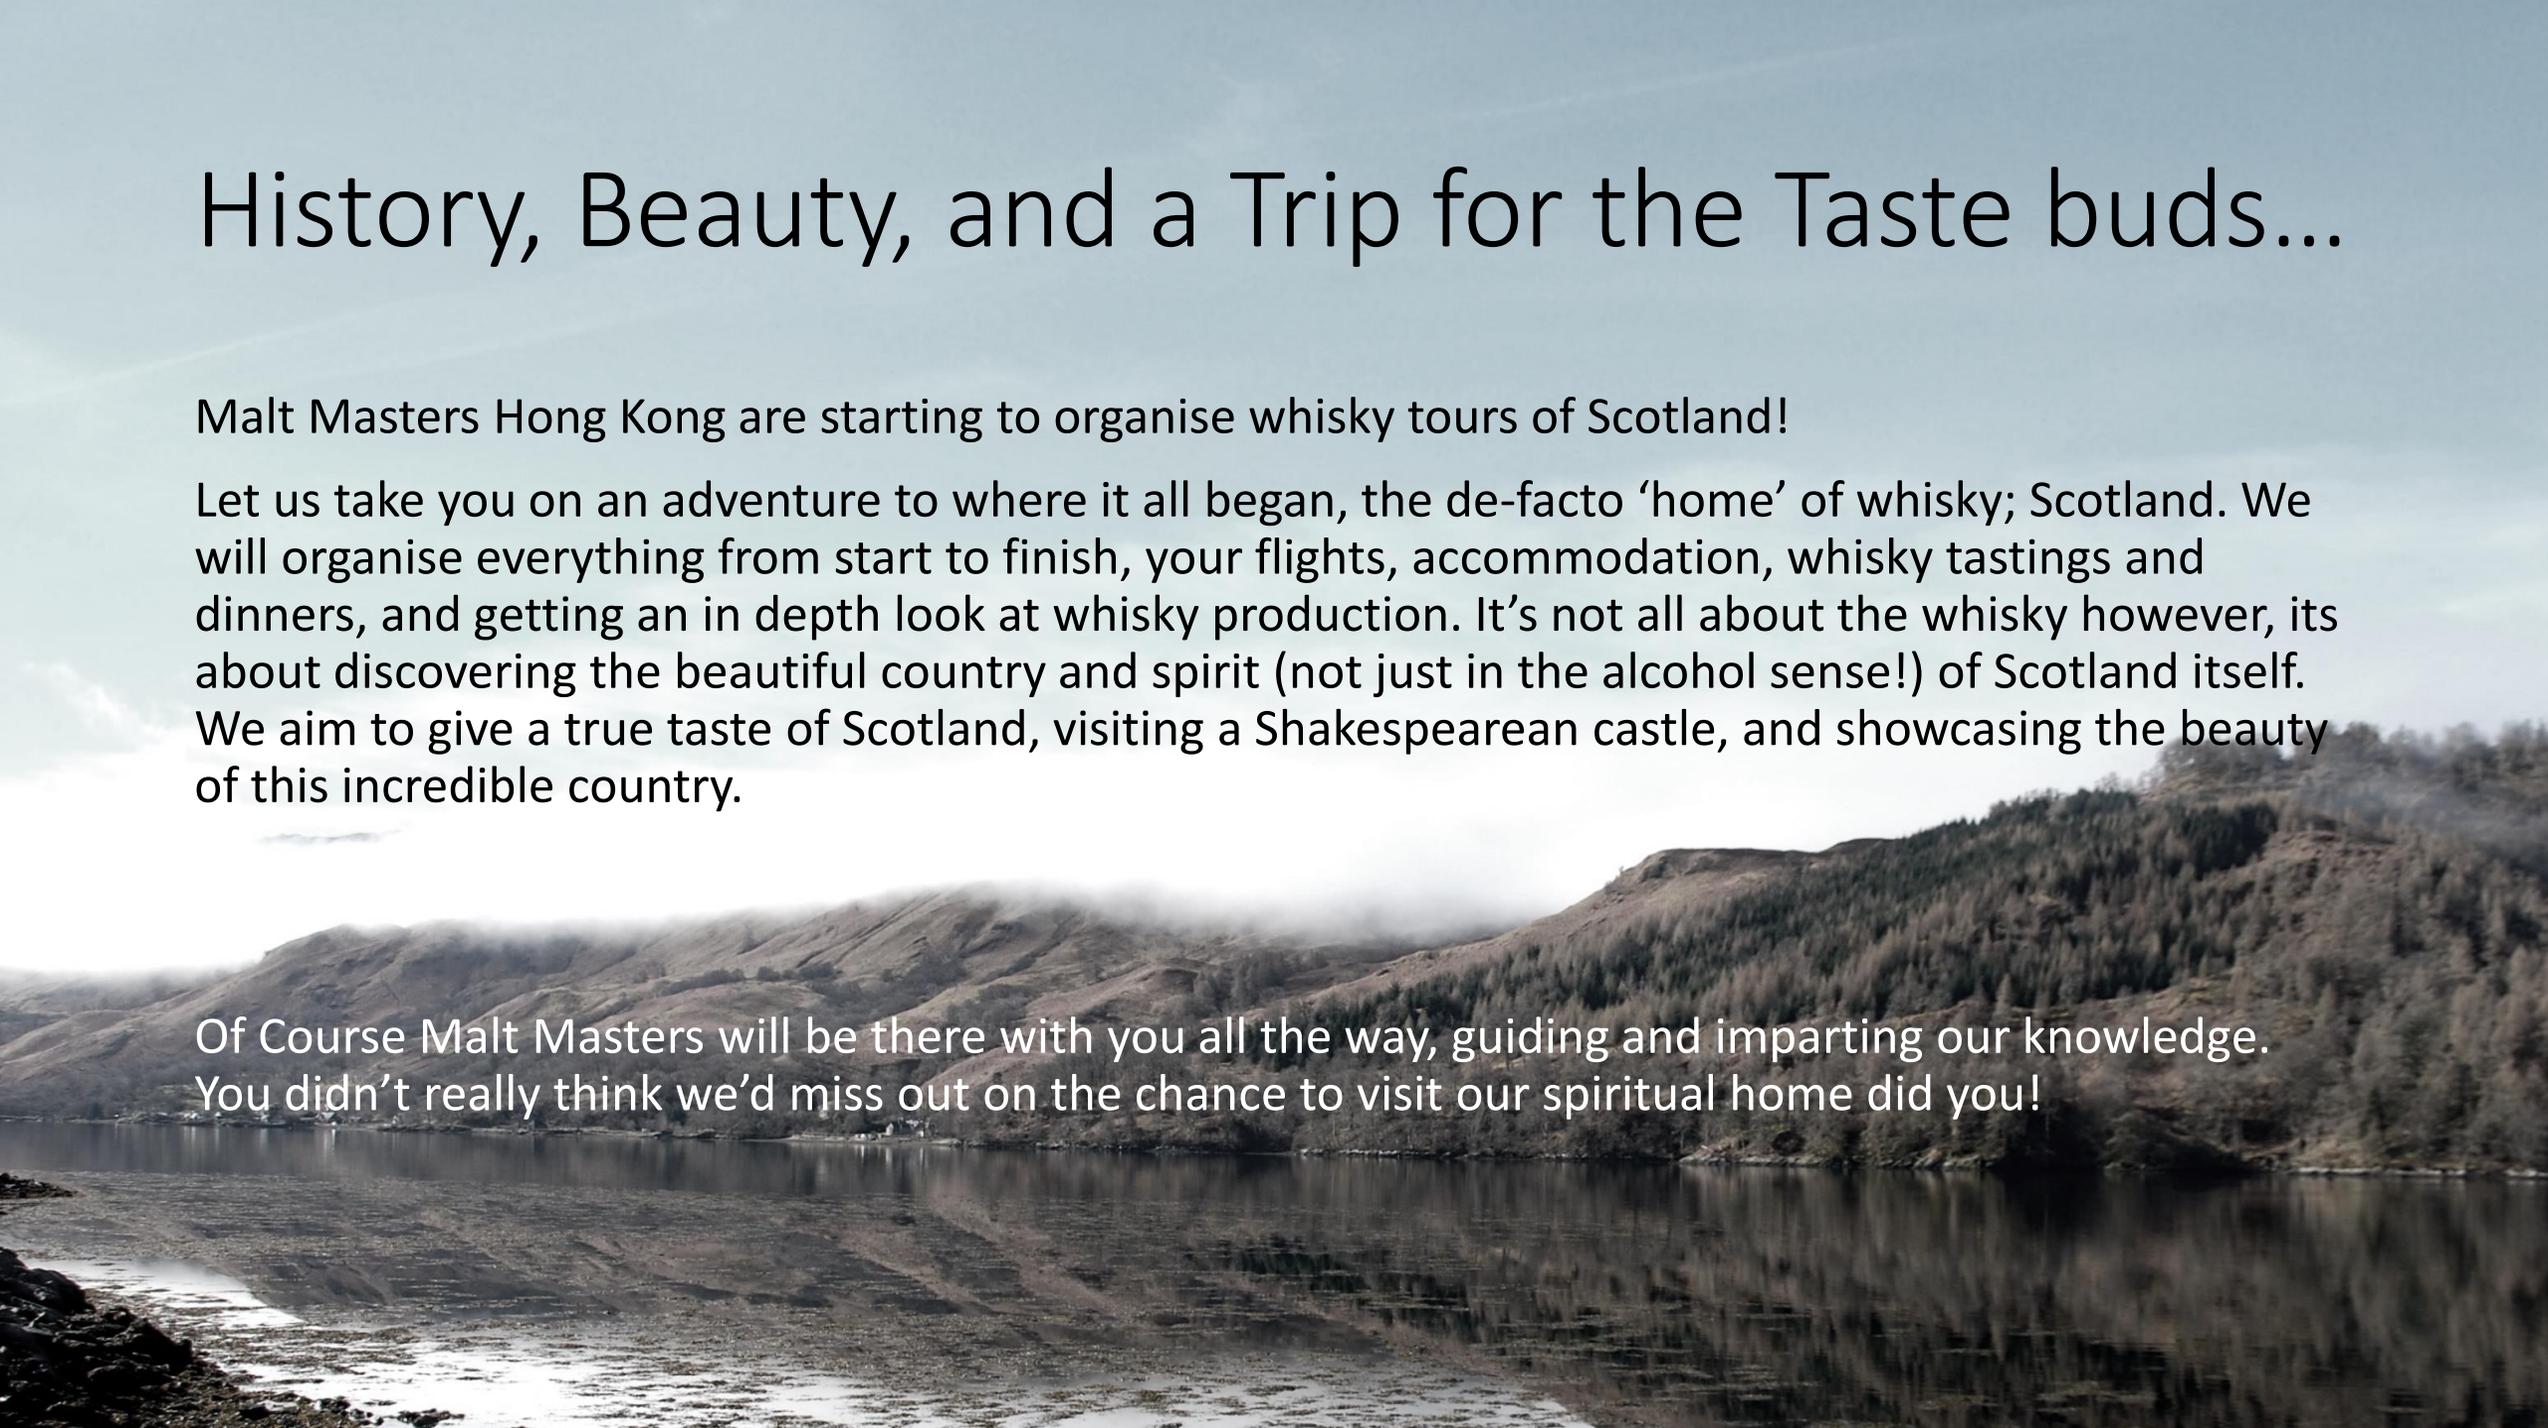

MALTMASTERS

History, Beauty, and a Trip for the Taste buds...

Malt Masters Hong Kong are starting to organise whisky tours of Scotland!

Let us take you on an adventure to where it all began, the de-facto 'home' of whisky; Scotland. We will organise everything from start to finish, your flights, accommodation, whisky tastings and dinners, and getting an in depth look at whisky production. It's not all about the whisky however, its about discovering the beautiful country and spirit (not just in the alcohol sense!) of Scotland itself. We aim to give a true taste of Scotland, visiting a Shakespearean castle, and showcasing the beauty of this incredible country.

Of Course Malt Masters will be there with you all the way, guiding and imparting our knowledge. You didn't really think we'd miss out on the chance to visit our spiritual home did you!
